Gentlemen

Yours 9th inst. I you said you would return the coins at once to England I did not fully understand you. You did say something about returning them but I did not know you meant to do so at once.

If you can get me the Anzma Coin at 160 I will take it and will ~~pay~~ bear any expenses of transportation if they don't exceed say £2 which I sincerely suppose they will reach I am better today -
Yours J. C. M. M. M.

Gentlemen:

If my offer, of $6 and ^{any} not over 2 for expenses on it, is accepted from England by due course of mail for the Suzanna coin you ordered me some time ago I will of course take it. But if I get it, I will not want the Claudius. "Vita Britannica" Denarius we talked about the other day.

If I don't get the Suzanna coin as per the above. I will take the Claudius Denarius. if it is in fine condition and if it does not cost me over $25— but if you can buy it for as I feel it will cost me less after you have added your usual comm. & I will of course expect you to do so. - getting it for me at as much less as you can.

I would offer for bulk coins, but do not feel that I can afford to do it.

Yours
S. E. Meigs.
